Call to Artists in Recovery

The Massachusetts Bureau of Substance Addiction Services, along with MOAR (Massachusetts Organization for Addiction Recovery) is seeking

Artists in Recovery to participate in this year's 32nd Annual Recovery Day Celebration. This event commemorates the strength of those affected by addiction and supports those in recovery. The celebration takes place at Boston's Faneuil Hall on Thursday, September 29th, 2022

We are looking for artists in recovery who would like to perform and/or have their art displayed during the Recovery Day celebration.

If you are interested in sharing your artistic talents (music, dance, spoken word, comedy, etc.) or displaying your art (painting, sculpture, graphics, etc.) please fill out the following form and submit a sample of your art/talent to info@MOAR-recovery.org by Friday, September

9, 2022. Final decisions will be made, and selected artists will be contacted by Friday, September 16, 2022.
